

EOD034

IED SEARCH SUIT

The IED Search Suit is designed for specialists Military and Police search teams looking for Improvised Explosive Devices (IEDs), mines and other forms of explosive devices. The suit provides full body protection against fragments and explosions. The standard suit offers a V50 of 450 m/s and is supplied with a Helmet and Visor. Other levels of protection are also available including V50 of 300 and 600 m/s.

The suit is made up of the following components:

Body armour providing front, back, side and shoulder protection with permanently attached arms

Trousers

Removable Collar

Removable Groin Protector

Removable ballistic panels sealed in waterproof heat sealed PVC armour bags

Outer cover fabric is water, fire and chemical proof.

Accessories

Level III/IV Armour Plates